Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Light and Peace: Sermons and Addresses My dear Friends, I can scarcely do other than, in the first instance commend these meditations to your generous consideration and acceptance. During several years, I was precluded by physical weakness from undertaking any service more public than a daily ministry to the religious and intellectual progress of those of you, who were preparing in this College for the ministry of the gospel in various Churches of Great Britain, and in many departments of home and foreign service. The majority of these discourses were prepared for our weekly meetings for devotion and addressed primarily to yourselves. It is, therefore, only under protest, with extreme diffidence, and in an indirect fashion that I can allow myself to be reckoned among the preachers of the age. The prominent idea in this particular series of discourses is the recognition of the genuine relation that prevails between religious ideas and holy living.
