powerHouse Books,U.S., United States, 2014. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 284 x 231 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Testament is a collection of photographs and writing by late photojournalist Chris Hondros spanning over a decade of coverage from most of the world s conflicts since the late 1990s, including Kosovo, Afghanistan, the West Bank, Iraq, Liberia, Egypt, and Libya. Through Hondros images, we witness a jubilant Liberian rebel fighter exalt during a firefight, a U.S. Marine remove Saddam Hussein s portrait from an Iraqi classroom, American troops ride confidently in a thin-skinned unarmored Humvee during the first months of the Iraq war, the probing eyes of an Afghan village boy, and rambunctious Iraqi schoolgirls enjoying their precious few years of relative freedom before aging into more restricted adulthoods. Hondros was not just a front-line war photographer, but also a committed observer and witness, and his work humanizes complex world events and brings to light shared human experiences. Evident in his writings, interspersed throughout, Hondros was determined to broaden our understanding of war and its consequences. This unyielding determination led Hondros to take dozens of trips to Iraq and Afghanistan, even as the news turned elsewhere. During these routine trips, Hondros examined and observed daily life in these war-torn societies. His inventive Humvee picture series frames the ever-changing landscapes of these countries, offering a glimpse into the daily lives of those most affected by conflict. One of the ongoing themes in my work, I hope, and one of the things I believe in, is a sense of human nature, a sense of shared humanity above the cultural layers we place on ourselves [which don t] mean that much compared to the human experience. --Chris Hondros As a photographer working in the world s most difficult and dangerous places, Chris Hondros...
