Not illustrated. 1899 Excerpt: .withdrew from the Metropolitan district last July it was because we believed that conditions were such that it was not possible to do business with any prospect of profit; and now, with the changed conditions, and with the expectation that the New York Exchange will be successful, we are prepared to resume business in confident hope of the future under the plan of a branch office. The branch office plan is determined upon because of the general ideas and policy of the company for the future. After sixteen years of successful underwriting in the local agency of W. S. Banta, the managership of the branch office here was tendered to him, and declined. I want to say right here, that in spite of the rumors and statements since the Fire Association ceased to accept business in New York city suggestive of any inharmonious conditions between the company and Mr. Banta, the actual relations have been those of perfect understanding and mutual judgment of the wisdom of making no effort to refute them. I look upon Mr. Banta as being one of the most efficient and best trained insurance men in New York city. We feel that the Fire Association is indebted to Mr. Banta for many years of faithful and profitable service, and the separation is one of mutual regret. Until the first of April the Fire Association will remain in Mr. Banta s office; on and after that date the business will be conducted through...
