Excerpt: .cannot afford; that it is affecting other trade channels; that many of the mechanics employed in the manufacture of cars are from the country, thns accentuating the back to the farm slogan; and that the country bankers have been advised to refuse loans to farmers when they know that such is to be used in the purchase of a joy wagon. All this sounds very alarming and we must confess ignorance as to pros and cons of the first three propositions. But to the last must say that if our country cousins, the farmers. cannot afford automobiles who under the Stars and Stripes can? Cubs versus Sox As an argument-settler in the neverending controversy between the Sox and Cub rooters as to which has the best ball park or the best ball team, the recent action of the tax assessors in declaring that ball...
