Excerpt: .to hunt a flock over thoroughly for ewes that are in heat. Only one leap should be allowed; as much care being taken in this respect as is taken by the owner of a thorough-bred horse or bull. Four or five ewes are as many as the ram should be allowed to serve in one day. Probably less would be better, although I have never detected any difference between the lambs in either case. As soon as the ewe is served, let her be put out and kept out for at least twenty-four hours. Those who have their ewes numbered can register the time that each ewe is served, so that she can be cared for at the proper time of dropping her lamb--about five months after service. The ram should be fed all the oats he will eat, twice a day, while he is...
