Montgomery Blair, at Hagerstown, MD., On 12th July, 1865: Exposing the Alliance of the American Secretary of State With Louis Napoleon to Overthrow the Monroe Doctrine and Establish a Despotism on This Continent The fact that our veterans are returning to their homes to pursue their more congenial pursuits, after having successfully resisted the attempt to subvert their Government; having maintained the Federal Union as it was, its basis unaltered in any respect, and our Federal Constitution unchanged, save in the amendment which forbids slavery within the Union; whilst it is taken as a matter of course here, because we know that any other result would be impossible, must revolutionize European opinion as to the instability of the Federal republican system. In the end, therefore, our own country will not alone be indebted for its freedom to the valor and patriotism of the noble band we greet here to-day with thanks and blessings. I feel how feeble any words are to express the deep feeling which not only pervades this assembly, but which lives in the hearts and speaks in the eyes of every lover of the human family throughout this world, towards any man who has borne arms in this cause for the love of it. To their unexampled bravery, to their patient labor, to their endurance of cold and heat, hunger and thirst, to their sufferings from wounds and disease, do we owe it, under God s providence, that we have not now, and possibly in perpetuity, a divided and distracted country, and, consequent thereon, the introduction here of that accursed European system of mercenary standing armies, in whose presence...
