Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1900 Excerpt: . . . APPENDIX CHARACTERISTIC TEXTS Selected from twenty-three books The texts that follow are named Characteristic as being mostly of such a nature as to show readily, to the intelligent Bible student who hears them read, from what book they have been taken. A majority of them have been made somewhat familiar in this Supplemental Course. The plan is for the leader to read a text, and for the school to respond with the name of the book from which the text was taken. The school may be required to wait until the reading of the text is finished, or it may be allowed to break in at any point as soon as the place of the text is recognized. All ways is the best way. The wise leader will always aim to make such selections for any particular exercise that most of his class will be able to respond to most of...
