Abou Shar, Persia, Nov. 24, 1886. My Dear Schubert. Having just finished a bout of three games of chess with a Persian gentleman, former Minister to the Court of St. James from The Land of the Lion and the Sun, who is reputed the best player in Bushire; and having, in the three games played within two days, come off one game better than second best; I beg leave to greet my old friends of the Club, and other friends whom I may reach through you, with the assurance that while absent I often recall with pride and pleasure our happy associations with each other in the years gone by, and to further assure them that I shall endeavor to bring no discredit upon the Club while abroad. The three encounters with this lion of...
