Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Apostles Creed: Six Lectures Given in Westminster Abbey The lectures in his volume were delivered on the Fridays of this Lent to the congregation, of all sorts and conditions, assembled at evensong in Westminster Abbey. Their purpose was catechetical and not critical; so that no attempt was made to refer to authorities. In sending them to press I have added a reference here and there, where I remembered a particular debt; and my general debt to my friends the theologians of this generation, though obvious enough, I take this opportunity of thank fully acknowledging. In the first lecture a paragraph or two has been borrowed from the preface to a volume of sermons published in 1892, and long out of print. My hope, in seeking for these lectures a new term of life, is that they may minister, in however humble a degree, to that exposition of the Christian faith, in terms comprehensible to the age, which every age whose intelligence is awake is entitled to demand from its clergy.
