Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Quiet Garden: Lyrics in Prose and Verse They had drawn very near each other, altho twenty years lay between them. Both were tall and strong and beautiful, tho in the eyes of one Hope smiled, and in the eyes of the other Memory brooded. The Woman spoke softly to the girl: Will you walk in my garden? And the girl knew she had received the highest honor. They entered the garden thru a low gate about which morning-glories twined. And the girl smiled at the flowers all about her, for they were the frank favorites of childhood. They grew in her own garden. As they passed on they reached paths flecked with doubtful sunshine, wandering among tall lilies like white dreams, and the girl looked at her companion sisterwise, for it was all like her own garden. But they strayed on into a band of rose-hued light athwart the path. Red roses were all around them, climbing over sweet arbors, flinging sprays of vivid color to the very top of the garden wall, which had suddenly grown high, shutting them into a secret place of glowing crimson and rich fragrance, as tho they had paused in the very heart of a rose. Red petals fluttered about their feet. The girl blushed, for she knew the meaning of the riot of roses. Still she did not speak, for the spell of silence lay upon the ruby close.
