CHASING RABBITS I AM: THE ART OF ATTAINMENT

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The pioneer of all entrepreneurs, the late Mary Kay Ash, legendary founder of Mary Kay Cosmetics, offered the success tip, If you chase too many rabbits, you ll never catch any. The adage answers the question of why so many folks never attain desired goals, or more importantly, successfully get to live their true callings. Most of us are too busy chasing, but seldom catching numerous metaphorical rabbits to ever consciously place a foot on the pre-determined path of limitless potential. And the rabbit s foot dangling from your key chain is not the answer! Nor is there a magic wand. Chasing Rabbits: The Art of Attainment by Jan Deelstra is food for thought. It s offered as a sample to whet your appetite while encouraging you to belly up to the smorgasbord of life, on your terms. Taste life as if you are at a luxury winery. Taste the possibilities, and then, decide what you want from the offerings. Decide first and foremost who you are and what you stand for, and what you will not stand for. Decide to own the whole of you, as you mindfully decide her to be. Mindful awareness is empowering. Take a close look at your self and decide consciously to enhance the traits which empower you, and to release those traits and habits which disagree with your evolving palate. Decide to catch that one most desirable rabbit. Cut away the options and focus on having the life you deserve and desire. Chase one goal at a time, and celebrate the bounty of your chase. Written by transformational author and women s empowerment life coach, Jan Deelstra. Other books by Deelstra...
